

Blessings from Susan Lynne

November 2008

Greetings -

This morning, as I was mapping out the next couple months, I was taken aback when I realized that there are barely 40 days left in 2008. Where did the time go? It seems like only yesterday that we were celebrating the New Year. Next week is Thanksgiving, the Father of all the seasonal celebrations. As we enter this precious time, let's remember that Thanksgiving is the time for gratitude.

As we look back on the past 11 months we need to be aware of all we are grateful for. Remember to start your day with an attitude of gratitude. Each morning when you awaken and just before your feet hit the ground, think of 5 things you are grateful for. Thanksgiving is the season of gratitude, love, abundance, faith and kindness.

In keeping with the gratitude theme, I have chosen this time to start my prayer circle in this wonderful month of November. I am so thankful for the amazing 11 months that I have been bringing Blessings From Susan Lynne to you, as well as the past eight months of my site www.mediumlink.com.

I want to thank all of you who have been part of my newsletter and site, whether you are a silent participant or someone with whom I have interacted with, either in person, by phone or email. Remember we are all six-sensory beings and the time is now!! I look forward to all of you Earth Angels helping me give birth to this prayer circle of light. Have a blessed November.

Please remember to contact me to be a part of, as well as requesting prayers at - prayers@mediumlink.com

Angel Blessings,

NOVEMBER ANGEL

Archangel Adnachiel, the angel for the month of November wants me to remind you that he is there to help you. Adnachiel is an angel that helps us turn our hopes and desires into reality. It is no wonder he is representative of this season of Thanksgiving.

Life is full of ups and downs during these times and we tend to overlook how blessed we truly are. As you end this year and start the dreams in motion for the year to come, call on Adnachiel to help you weave the tapestry of what will be. Adnachiel is there to open the door to our practical world and send the light of hope, dreams, intuition and love through.

We start our days in an attitude of gratitude. Adnachiel is saying you need to end your day in the mode the angels call "CYB" -- that is, COUNT YOUR BLESSINGS! When you go through the daily ups and downs, and twists and turns, remember to call on Adnachiel. He is only an angel whisper away.
