

Blessings from Susan Lynne

October 2008

Greetings -

I want to wish all you Earth Angels a wondrous October! I took a look at the calendar and could not believe that this glorious month is almost gone. As we look ahead to the final days of this month, I thought I would share some of the exciting transformations that have been taking place at Mediumlink:

MediumMarket - my new online market featuring my cds and recordings
About Susan Lynne - new additions to this section have been added including invited blogs as well as new testimonials and orbs of hope and joy

Very soon, I will also be adding a prayer circle with the help of my webmaster. A special thanks to him and to all who have expressed interest in participating in this special way to show support.

Angel Blessings,

Susan Lynne

OCTOBER: PASSION AWARENESS MONTH

October is passion awareness month. An example of how passion is ever present this month can be found by just a quick glance out your window. Look at the gorgeous array of colored leaves that are bursting forth the trees and bushes. There are fire reds, vibrant oranges, sun like yellows, mushroom to cocoa browns -- it is a true smorgasbord!

Now step outside and take a deep breath of the air that is autumn's promise. While you are out there, feel the passion of promise and transformation in the air. Just as the trees start out waking from the slumber of winters cold, slowly coming to life in spring, bursting forth in promise and realization in the dog days of summer, October brings us full circle realizing the transformation of all our hopes and desires. This is the same for our spiritual journey. October is all about putting it in perspective and letting go to allow the transformation.

Use this time to review. Really look back at the past nine months and see the progress or in some cases lack of progress. Now embrace the energy that this powerful autumn month October brings. Make a concerted effort to have passion in your life on a daily basis. Live your personal, professional, romantic, family; all of your life with passion! Imagine the abundance you will manifest!!

Abundance and October go hand in hand for the name of this month is derived from the Latin word "octo" meaning eight. We all know eight is the number of abundance. Embrace the passion and abundance that October brings and keep a bit of it tucked away in your heart for everyday.

OCTOBER ANGEL

The angel that represents the month of October is Barbiel, the Angel of Transformation. Barbiel is a wonderful soothing angel that if truth be known, has quite a sense of humor. October is a month of changes and transformations. This can no better be represented in the changing of the leaves and their falling to the ground.

Most of us do not relish the idea of change. Barbiel has told me that the change and transformation that October and even November will bring should not be feared. It does not have to be harsh, cruel or hurt. Barbiel is with us during this time and all times of change and transformation to guide us through with gentleness and ease.

Barbiel tells me to explain to you that the changes are like cleaning out your gutters or flushing your radiator or pipes. It is a necessary part of the flow of life, the shift of energy clearing what we experience. He tells me though, that his job is to make it lighter for you.

So as you go through the changes and transformations that this autumn brings, call on Barbiel to lighten you as well as the load you carry.
