

Blessings from Susan Lynne

December 2008

Greetings and a very Merry Christmas to each and every one of you!

In eight days, we will be welcoming in a bright New Year 2009 that, like all the New Years past, symbolizes the HOPE that this season is about.

I was struggling this month to come up with an appropriate newsletter topic. Suddenly, in no uncertain terms, Archangels Gabriel & Raphael sent me my Christmas message.

For Christmas 2006, we purchased a brand new Westie puppy named Pal. Pal was replacing another Christmas dog, Princess, who had been with us for 15 years and was lost during the Christmas of 2005. Well, that Christmas Eve, we were all experiencing the love, joy and hope of the season, when our Christmas puppy started to hemorrhage. As I was proceeding to take her to the emergency animal hospital, my neighbor informed me that a deer was injured in our back yard and that the police were on their way to shoot it. I remember thinking, "Could this Christmas Eve get any worse?"

At the pet hospital we were told that Pal would not survive the night. During this flurry of medical events, my Mom collapsed and was rushed by ambulance to her hospital. Through it all, with the help of my angels, the prayer circle I worked with, and hope; I can honestly say it was one of the best Christmas's I've ever had. You may wonder how?

Pal defied all odds and, according to the vet, was a true miracle. The deer somehow summoned the strength to leave our back yard before the police got there. He did not die. My Mom made it home and had a great time opening up her presents.

That Christmas -- 2006, was a lesson in hope and miracles.

Miracles are events that manifest, often defying the laws of nature, to hold us in marvel and wonder. What the angels, especially Archangel Gabriel, want you to know, is that the hope, wonder and miracle of Christmas is not just for December 25th, but lives in each and every day, 365 days a year. The hopes and miracles of this season are to be experienced by all, regardless of their religious (or lack of religious) affiliation. They want you not only to believe in miracles, but to experience miracles daily!

In closing, Archangels Michael, Raphael, Uriel, Haniel, Ariel, Gabriel, Jophiel, Jeremiel, Raguel, Muriel, and a multitude of others, send you Love, Joy and Hope. That is their Christmas Wish for you.

Angel Blessings,

Susan Lynne
